GALEN UNIVERSITY HAS THE BELOW VACANCY:

PART-TIME FIELD SUPERVISOR, MASTER'S OF SOCIAL WORK (MSW)

Galen University is thrilled to extend an exceptional opportunity to join our distinguished faculty as a Field Supervisor for our esteemed Master of Social Work (MSW) Program. We are seeking a passionate individual to play a pivotal role in guiding and supporting the practical field experiences of our aspiring social work professionals.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Identify and collaborate closely with a diverse range of local agencies, including Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), private practices, and governmental organizations, to identify and secure field placements tailored to the needs of Master-level social work students.
2. Work with students to identify and secure appropriate field placements aligned with their academic and professional goals.
3. Conduct regular visits or virtual check-ins with students placed in field settings to provide guidance, support, and evaluation of their learning experiences.
4. Establish and maintain relationships with field agencies, supervisors, and community partners to facilitate effective student placements and enrich learning opportunities.
5. Assess student performance in field settings, provide constructive feedback, and assist in addressing challenges or concerns that may arise during the placement.
6. Work closely with faculty and program administrators to ensure field experiences align with program objectives and accreditation standards.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Master's degree in Social Work (MSW) or related field from an accredited institution.
2. Professional experience in social work practice, preferably including field instruction, supervision, or administration.
3. Demonstrated understanding of field education principles and practices within the social work context.
4. Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to establish collaborative relationships with diverse stakeholders.
5. Effective communication skills for facilitating discussions, providing feedback, and guiding students in a remote or in-person setting.
